

Marching Into March

When thinking about scriptures for "Marching into the month of March," the most relevant passage is often found in Joshua 1:9, which says "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." This scripture encourages a sense of moving forward with confidence and faith, much like a marching army, signifying new beginnings and taking action towards goals.

Other scriptures that could resonate with the concept of "Marching into March":

- Deuteronomy 31:8:
"The Lord is the one who marches before you; He will be with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you."
- Psalm 27:1:
"The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?"
- Isaiah 40:31:
"But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary; they will walk and not be faint."

March Quotes

- "After a certain age, time just drizzles down upon your head like rain in the month of March."
- "It was one of those March days when the sun shines hot and the wind blows cold: when it is summer in the light, and winter in the shade."
- "March 4th, the only day that is also a sentence."

March, the month of change. We have all heard the familiar saying- March comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. Winter slowly fades off and the days become noticeably longer, and spring is on the horizon.
